GUADALUPE COUNTY JOBLESS RATE CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

For more than a year, the state of Texas and its employers have exhibited a knack for connecting job seekers with job providers. The state has done so well that it realized job gains month over month for 14 consecutive months as of the Texas Workforce Commission's December jobs data, Gov. Greg Abbott said recently. The state broke its all-time total high for jobs available in each of those 14 months, he said. Read More

ONE-OF-A-KIND VETERANS SERVICE OUTREACH CENTER ON ITS WAY TO COMPLETION

(Seguin) – A gift to area veterans is only 90 days away from being finished. Guadalupe County Judge Kyle Kutscher says April is the anticipated timeframe for the construction of the new Guadalupe County Veterans Outreach Service Center. The Seguin Daily News has been tracking the progress of this one-of-a-kind service office for veterans ever since it was officially put into motion in 2021. Read More

LOCAL PIT MASTERS NAMED JAMES BEARD SEMIFINALISTS

Local pit masters Ernest Servantes and David Kirkland have received various accolades in their two-and-a-half years of business. But none of the awards and honors has surprised the co-owners of Burnt Bean BBQ more than to hear they once again were named semi-finalists for the James Beard Award Best Chef: Texas. Read More

MORALES TO RETURN TO THE POSITION OF DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT

(Geronimo) – The Navarro ISD has chosen to move forward with an official search for its next school superintendent. On Monday, the Navarro ISD Board of Trustees unanimously approved the launch of a superintendent search process. That move comes in response to the district's other decision to return current Acting Superintendent Luke Morales to his role as Deputy Superintendent. Read More

REGION AND STATE NEWS

Growth abates in Texas manufacturing sector

Growth in Texas factory activity slowed in January, according to business executives responding to the Texas Manufacturing Outlook Survey. The production index, a key measure of state manufacturing conditions, fell from 9.1 to 0.2, with the near-zero reading suggestive of flat output. Read More

San Antonio Economic Indicators

San Antonio job growth declined in December, while the unemployment rate was unchanged. Restaurant spending and wages increased. In contrast, the business-cycle index declined slightly, and home sales continued to fall. Read More
