TSTC expansion in Comal, Guadalupe counties to meet workforce needs

(COMAL AND GUADALUPE COUNTIES, Texas) - Texas State Technical College is advancing workforce development along the Texas Highway 46 corridor, with plans to establish a new campus in Seguin while expanding offerings at its New Braunfels location.

This strategic move strengthens the college's commitment to addressing regional workforce needs and supporting the area's rapid economic growth. "Comal and Guadalupe counties are among the fastest-growing regions in the state and home to a large concentration of industrial employers,” Mike Reeser, TSTC’s chancellor and CEO, said. “So the Legislature’s decision to expand TSTC into this region is timely and sure to contribute to the economic prosperity this region will see for decades to come.” READ MORE.
