Expo opens teens' eyes to local career opportunities

SEGUIN, TX - Jose Soria, 13, still has time to figure out what he wants to do with the rest of his life but he's already thinking about it. He hoped his presence Wednesday at the third annual Seguin Youth Career Expo would help him hash it all out. And, he found it interesting to explore career and educational opportunities at the expo, Jose said. "I think it's cool to learn about new jobs," he said. The teen was among scores of his classmates from Barnes Middle School who attended the expo Wednesday afternoon. He planned to use the event to help him determine what his focus will be at the next educational level. READ MORE.
